I understand and acknowledge that I cannot take or process investment trades directly from customers, without first being properly registered. Only a properly registered representative can solicit, sell, or discuss investments with a customer, potential customer, or the general public. I also have read and understand the limitations that are imposed by Transamerica Financial Advisors, LLC that are provided in this package and were reviewed with a TFA Registered Representative or principal. I understand that my communication with customers is limited to administrative issues that do not require FINRA registration, otherwise the customer will be directed to his or her TFA Registered Representative.
